

II Cercles Focus Groups Meeting – University of Messina Language Centre (C.L.A.M.) – 14th and 15th May 2010

The II Cercles Focus Groups meeting will be held in Messina (Italy).
Venue: a four star hotel where all participants will also be accommodated.

As stated by the Cercles Executive, the aim of the focus groups is:

- to pull together the competences available within our National Associations and within our individual institutions,
- to learn from each other aiming to further develop ideas , and by doing so we hope,
- to enhance the quality of our everyday work,
- to stimulate innovation, and to involve more CercleS members in the daily tasks of our network.

We hope that] the activities of these focus groups will lead to more workshops and seminars in various parts of Europe, making CercleS more active and more visible.

This e-mail contains some general information. You are kindly invited to urgently let us know if you think you will participate in the meeting in order to reserve the appropriate amount of chambers. This is, at present, a non-binding confirmation on your part.

Messina can be easily reached by airplane. The nearest airports are Catania and Reggio Calabria.
