

New Bio

Name	Andrea	Koblizkova
Country/Association	Czech Republic	CASALC
Education	Mendel University Brno: Economics and management , Masaryk University: English and American studies , University of (MA) University of Pardubice: HRM (PhD.)
Professional Experience	Senior lecturer in English and Intercultural Communication; Head of Language Centre of University of Pardubice; coordination of national and international projects; President of the Czech CASALC; a member of the editorial board of the CASALC Review
Educational Interests	intercultural communication and ESP, enhancement of the role of language pragmatics within tertiary education curricula
Contribution to CercleS	My background, combining management, marketing and EFL naturally brings me to issues of communication important in international management and administration when dealing with topics of European language policy, HEIs collaboration etc. I can offer experience from management procedures and respective processes, including budgeting, as well as human resources management techniques, in the area of which I did both my doctoral research and work now on an everyday basis; I seek meaningful solutions, free from bias, and am lead by endeavour to reflect cultural specificities in every negotiation.	